Deck the Halls and Deal the Cards

In the spirit of the season,

this holiday playbook is stuffed with suggestions for throwing the most epic holiday game night on your block. Unwind from the hustle and bustle with an evening of friendly competition and family rivalry.

Consider a Theme

- Holiday movie night:

Choose a lineup that includes timeless classics like It's a Wonderful Life or Elf and newer favorites like Klaus. Set up a cozy viewing area with blankets and pillows and maybe even a vote for best movie.

- Ugly sweater party:

Encourage guests to wear their most outrageous and festive sweaters. Consider a runway show where everyone shows off their attire, with prizes for categories like "Most Creative" and "Most Hilarious."

- Fancy dress-up affair:

Host a winter wonderland soiree or a glamorous red-carpet holiday gala. Encourage guests to dress their best, complete with a photo booth to capture all the stylish looks.

Add a sparkly layer of whimsy and fun!

Decorate the Space

- Bright and elegant:

Hang string lights and garlands around doorways, windows, and the mantle for a warm ambiance.

- Radiant:

Use ornaments as table centerpieces, mixing sizes and colors to create a festive display.

- Glittering:

Depending on your theme, add sparkly elements like sequined table runners or glittering stars hanging from the ceiling for additional razzle-dazzle.

- Cozy:

Ensure there's ample seating with comfy pillows and throws, creating a relaxed environment for mingling.

Create a Merry Playlist

- Musical mix:

Curate a playlist of traditional holiday tunes and modern favorites. Include sing-along classics and upbeat tracks to keep spirits high.

- Caroling fun:

If your group is up for it, consider caroling for an extra dose of cheer! Hand out lyrics for a joyful group activity.

Toast With Festive Food and Drinks

- Hot chocolate bar:

Set up a DIY hot chocolate station with a variety of toppings—think marshmallows, candy canes, whipped cream, and flavored syrups.

- Snack mix:

Create a festive snack mix with pretzels, chocolate-covered candies, and seasonal treats like holiday-shaped cookies or Christmas Hershey's Kisses.

- Cocktails:

Serve seasonal cocktails like peppermint mochas, cranberry martinis, and spiced eggnog. Consider including nonalcoholic versions so everyone can enjoy!

- Candy cane bark:

Make this simple and delicious treat with chocolate and crushed candy canes to satisfy any sweet tooth.

- Cookie exchange:

Host a cookie exchange party where guests bring their favorite holiday cookies to share. Encourage your guests to bake different cookies to ensure a tasty variety for everyone to sample.

Play Yuletide Games

- Draw visual clues:

Have teams sketch out holiday-themed hints for others to guess.

- Play charades:

Act out beloved holiday movies, songs, or traditions.

- Battle wits in trivia:

Host a holiday trivia contest to test your guests' knowledge of festive facts, movies, and songs.

- Compete in a gift wrapping showdown:

See who can wrap a gift in the most creative way in a timed contest.

- Go ear to ear naming the tunes:

Play short clips of holiday songs and see who can guess them first.

- Put a festive spin on your favorite games:

Play the holiday version of a classic board game or modern video game.

- Spice up your card games:

Up the candy ante in a playful game of poker or be the first to 500 in eggnog rummy. There are many ways to make a card game on theme for the holiday season!
